Orquesta Filarmónica de Jalisco / Teatro Degollado, Altos: Belen, esquina Morelos s/n, Centro Histórico

Guadalajara, Jalisco, México / Código Postal 44100

Applicants who send incomplete information and/or documents or past the aforementioned date and time shall not be considered for the audition. Registering does not imply the selection of the applicant for the audition nor the applicant's hiring by the OFJ.

2. Only upon receipt of ALL the above requirements and the evaluation of these documents for pre-selection shall the OFJ inform the candidate if they qualify to attend the live audition. Only highly qualified candidates shall be invited to audition.

All transportation, room and board and miscellaneous costs, etc., necessary to be present at the live auditions shall be borne by the participants. The OFJ will not provide any form of economic assistance.
3. Live Auditions: The applicants who pass the pre-selection process (see Clauses 1 and 2) shall audition live in the presence of a qualified jury and according to the following:
 - a. Candidates must arrive punctually, 30 minutes before the indicated start time on the day of the audition. The order of participation shall be chosen by lot at that time.
 - b. Auditions shall be "closed curtain" in all live preliminary rounds. Each candidate must remain exclusively within the assigned area and must maintain complete silence otherwise she/he shall be disqualified. A final round, if necessary, may be without curtain.
 - c. The audition committee may request that the candidate interpret either complete works, passages or just fragments of these.
 - d. The committee reserves the right to terminate the audition at any moment.
 - e. Candidates may not remain backstage or in the audience seating area before or after their audition time.
 - f. All communication will take place in silence and be mediated by the Personnel Manager, L.A.E. César Tena Ramírez.
4. Video Auditions: By exception, applicants who pass the video pre-selection process (see Clauses 1 and 2) may be allowed to audition by video, according to the following:
 - a. Only in the case of a pre-existing scheduling conflict which prevents her/him from being present at the live audition, acceptable reasons being: a prior contract with an ensemble, festival or other organization, attending a course in a musical institution, or lack of sufficient funds to pay transportation and lodging. Although a video audition is permitted, a live audition is preferable.

- b. Applicants who pass the video pre-selection process (see Clauses 1 and 2) and who are not able to attend the live auditions, shall follow these points when preparing their audition video:
 - b.1. Use a good quality camera, preferably High-Definition (HD), with good sound-taking ability;
 - b.2. Distance your camera so that the upper half of your body is visible. Your instrument, hands and face (and bow in the case of string instruments) must be visible at all times during the recording;
 - b.3. Please note that you must play all the orchestral excerpts straight through in the order listed. The recording (video) has to be made in one take, similar to a live audition. Please note Rounds 1 and 2a and 2b may be recorded separately;
 - b.4. Cuts and editing are strictly not allowed;
 - b.5. The video recording(s) must not be older than 3 months from the date of this notice.
 - b.6. The solo repertoire (Round 1) should preferably be accompanied with piano (electronic keyboard is acceptable) although accompaniment is not obligatory;
 - c. Whoever auditions by video shall send said video in the same terms specified in Clause 1; The audition video shall be received at no later than October 22nd, 2018 until 23:59 at the latest.
5. All audition candidates shall be evaluated by a qualified jury, including the Music Director and a jury of peers.
 6. The jury shall evaluate all audition candidates (live and video auditions) and shall reach a binding decision. In the case of equal artistic and technical ability between two candidates, preference will be given to candidates of Mexican nationality.
 7. Once a decision is reached, participants selected by the jury shall be notified of the results by either telephone or e-mail no later than November the 3rd 2018.
 8. The winning candidate shall be hired for a six-month trial period, starting January 14th 2019, during which period her/his performance shall be evaluated. Once the trial period has been completed, the candidate shall be evaluated by the OFJ's Music Director. If the candidate is approved she/he shall be hired according to the following clause. The annual amounts referred to in this Audition Call will be covered in proportion to the services effectively rendered.
 9. Once the candidate is approved passed the six-month trial period, she/he shall be hired for five years with the possibility of renewal for an additional five years.
 10. For the hiring referred to in Clauses 8 and 9, the winning candidates must present the following documents:
 - a. Copy of official identification with photograph.
